

IDAHO WING SQUADRON LEADERSHIP SCHOOL JANUARY 20-21, 2018

COURSE GOAL

Squadron Leadership School is a professional development program for adult CAP volunteers. SLS's primary goal is to prepare members to contribute at the squadron level.

Saturday, 20 January 2018

Volunteer Service

Objective: Understand the basic expectation associated with being a CAP officer; commit to serving as a staff officer.

0800	1.1	Welcome	Vorachek
0830	2.1	Officership And The Public Trust	Vorachek
1000	2.2	Introduction to Professional Development	Picker

The Role of the Squadron And Its Staff

Objective: Develop an Appreciation for the essential role squadrons play in CAP; acquire practical knowledge necessary for serving as a squadron staff officer.

1300	3.1	Squadrons: The Heart of CAP	Grubb
1400	3.2	Squadron Staff Officers	J. Haldy

Sunday, 21 January 2018

0800	3.3	Individualized Training in Staff Specialties	P. Haldy
------	-----	--	----------

Foundation for Leadership

Objective: Comprehend the leadership attitudes and skills necessary for serving effectively as a squadron staff officer.

0930	4.1	Introduction to Leadership	Vorachek
1100	4.2	The Staff Officer as Communicator	Grubb
1300	4.3	Creative Thinking and Problem Solving	J. Haldy

1500	1.2	Course Critique and Graduation	Vorachek
------	-----	--------------------------------	----------